Reasons why the "American Boy" must be the Standard
Authority for all Games played in the United States:

Because it is an American Book, prepared with great care, with the aid and counsel of a large number of the best players (both amateur and professional) in this country.
The rules, definitions, and tables of probabilities are all clear and adapted to the several games as they actually are played here.

Many of our games are peculiarly American, and cannot be intelligently described except by an American who understands them. This book is the first American publication to elucidate American modifications, so as to make the European rules and definitions as likely to mislead as to inform.

In preparing this work, the best or greatest weight of authority for each particular game has been taken upon disputed points.

The important games of Chess, Checkers, and Backgammon are illustrated with over 120 diagrams of games, problems, and critical points, all of which have been carefully played upon the board since the work was stereotyped, and many changes and corrections have been made.

All the games played in the United States, whether of home or foreign origin, are given as they are played by Americans at the present day.

THE TRIBUNEFOR 1865.

PROSPECTUS.

The Military and Naval exercises of 1864, with the auspicious result of our Presidential contest, have lifted a heavy weight from the breasts of the loyal Millions of our countrymen. It is now felt even by those who have been disloyal and faint-hearted, that the Union to emerge triumphant from the deadly strife wherein she was so wickedly precipitated by her assailants, and that Slavery, her relentless foe, is to encounter the fate of Hammurabi. The perils of foreign intervention and of Western insurrection are safely passed; ABRAHAM LINCOLN no longer assails us as the choice of a minority, holds the helm of State for four years longer; the Rebellion, palpably weakened by its defeats and losses during the year now closing—with its credit so reduced that its purse-bearer officially declares that its Treasury Notes can only be exchanged for coin at the rate of twenty-five for one, while its bond command but six cents on the dollar—but awaits the blow which shall soon strike the sword from its purloined hand and render its master spirits to the justice, or may it be to the clemency, of a sovilely wronged and justly incensed but forbearing and magnanimous People. Such are the auspices which justify our faith that the year soon to open will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every battlefield in the Republic, and the perfect law of Liberty for All immovably imbedded in the Constitution of our Union.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, founded in 1844, will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened heart and enlarged means of usefulness. Its principles need no re-statement: its aims are the diffusion of Intelligence and the elevation of a spirit of Freedom and Humanity. When the truth shall have been generally recognized and established as the basis of our institutions and polity, that injustice to the poorest, the weakest, the most despised, is a fatal mistake—that no community or State can afford to wrong even its humblest member—then will our land bask once more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity.

THE TRIBUNE will for the last year been published without profit to its proprietors, solely because of the depreciation of our Currency below the specie standard, compelling us to buy paper and other materials at a cost considerably above the full amount received from our subscribers. Our weekly edition, the net loss has amounted to many thousands of dollars; while our large receipts from Advertising have been wholly absorbed by the extraordinary expenses for Correspondence, Telegraphing, &c., devolved upon us by the War. As we do not suppose our parsons desire that we should work for them at our own cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who may doubt it, we have somewhat advanced for the ensuing year the prices of our Seal-Weekly and Weekly, as we have already done with those of our Daily editions. This increase is purely nominal; there never before was a time when the farmers of our country could buy THE TRIBUNE for so little of their own products or labor as they can by the following
